

Instructions for wear checks of play equipment

Playground:

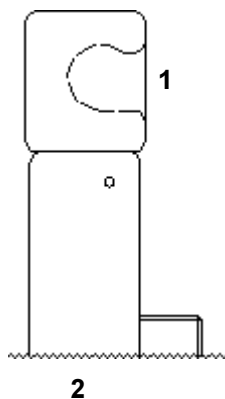

Date of assembly:

Graubner Play Stations for developing the senses intend to make basic physical phenomena observable and encourage easy understanding of the underlying principles. In order to achieve this aim in public spaces it will be necessary to mediate between the precautions against vandalism and the unobstructed observation of the shown physical phenomena. The proper function of the equipment must be ensured by regular maintenance. Experience shows that the most effective way of protection against vandalism, is the careful maintenance of the equipment and the surrounding. This conveys the feeling that the local people care about their playground.

This generally includes:

- the periodic cleaning of the equipment which enhances the moment of surprise and enthusiasm.
- the unobstructed access to the explanation boards of the equipment.
